Press Release

Thought Leadership at Sanskriti MahaShibir

Hindu Swayamsevak Sangh UK is celebrating its Golden Jubilee this year. The Hindu Swayamsevak Sangh (HSS) UK, which started in 1966, is a social/cultural national organisation of Hindus and a registered charity that has over 110 weekly activity centres across the country. The average weekly attendance in these centres is over 2,000.

This year is the Golden Jubilee of the HSS UK and to commence the yearlong celebrations, the HSS has organised Sanskriti MahaShibir – a residential gathering of over 2,200 people from across the UK and Europe from the 29th to 31st July in Hertfordshire.

The 70-acre parkland site will be transformed into a large township, housing 400 tents with all facilities and amenities. The theme of this historic gathering will be Sanskaar (values of life), Sewa (selfless service) and Sangathan (community spirit). According to Shri Dhiraj Shah, the UK Sangachalak (President), “the activities at MahaShibir will enable its attendees to explore and understand the values and ethics (sanskars) that has nourished the HSS over the last 50 years and prepare them to build a peaceful, prosperous and progressive society.”

A number of prominent persons from the world over have been invited to this historic event. They are Swami Dayatmananda - Head of Ramakrishna Vedanta Centre UK, Shri Mohanrao Bhagwat Head of RSS India, Swami Nirliptananda - Head of London Sewashram Sangh UK, Acharya Vidya Bhaskar - Omkarananda Ashram Switzerland, Devi Bageeshwari ji - Radhe Radhe Sampradday, Vrindavan, India, Shri Keerti Mathur – Art of Living UK, Dr Shankar Tatwawadi - Advisor of Vigyan Bharati India, Shri Gauridasji - ISKCON UK, Shri Saumitra Gokhale - HSS USA, Mr Philip Carr Gomm - Head of Order of Bards Ovates and Druids UK, Shri Krishnakant Atri – Hindu Chaplain to the Armed Forces UK and many more.

Dhiraj Shah believes that, “with the support and guidance of such prominent persons discussing subjects such as ‘Harmonious family life, understanding Hindu Dharma, Purpose of life, yoga, spirituality beyond religion and many more, the HSS UK will grow from strength to strength and continue to nurture active citizens of the society with values of social duty, discipline and friendship as it has done for the last fifty years.”
