Remembering the Holocaust

Hindu Swayamsevak Sangh UK commemorates the horrendous holocaust suffered by the Jewish population in Europe during the 2nd World War

As we commemorate the horrendous holocaust, we remember the sufferings of the victims of that and the other holocausts, including of those who were victimised for being part of the Hindu faith.

We continue to experience such holocausts in today's world and need to learn from our history.

Bearing in mind human being's capability and tendency to inflict cruelty on others and in the knowledge that some individuals and groups have in recent years sought to claim that this holocaust never happened it is vital that we do our utmost to ensure the Holocaust is not forgotten – in the near future, nor by the future generations and that we ensure such atrocities are never ever committed again.
